RUSSIANS GIVEN CRUSHING DEFEAT

Fighting Still Continues, But the Russian Troops Are Everywhere Retreating

Japanese Commander Estimates the Russian Losses at Thirty Thousand Men

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY DISPATCH:

Tokio, Oct. 15, 7 p. m.—Fighting continues, but the Russians are retreating. Kuropatkin evidently has been crushingly defeated. Field Marshal Oyama estimates Russian casualties at thirty thousand.

JAPANESE CAPTURE MORE GUNS

Battle Still Continues, Although the Russians Have Fallen Back Twenty Miles

But Russians Consider Later Reports More Encouraging as there Has Been no Rout

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY DISPATCH:

St. Petersburg, Oct. 15, 10:25 a. m.—Unofficial reports from the battlefield are more encouraging this morning. The Russians have fallen back twenty miles, but there has been no rout. Kuropatkin has retired across the Shak Ve river and is holding the Japanese in check there.

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY DISPATCH:

Tokio, Oct. 15, 12 m.—Heavy fighting continues south of Mukden. General Oku captured ten additional guns yesterday.

WHOLE LINE RETIRES

OPENED UNITED STATES MAIL

Russian Officers Went Through That Sent to Warship.

Washington, Oct. 15.—It developed Friday that a pouch containing mail for the United States cruiser Cincinnati, then at Nagasaki, Japan, which was aboard the steamer Calchas when that vessel was captured by the Russian Vladivostok squadron, was opened while in the possession of the Russian officers, subsequently resealed and sent on to its destination. This information came to the postoffice department Friday in a communication from the Japanese postal administration in conformity with a practice always followed when there has been any mishap in the delivery of mail pouches.

The affair will be referred to the state department for action, as was done with the case of the ordinary United States mail on the vessel at the time she was seized. This latest phase of the seizure of the Calchas' mails has caused a painful surprise in official circles and if the act of opening the pouch addressed to the Cincinnati was willingly done the probability is that a strong protest will be lodged with the Russian government.

The cause of the Russian defeat is that the Japanese army drove a wedge into the middle of the enemy's line. Prisoners say General Kuropatkin personally commanded the troops on the main road and that General Mistchenko was in command at Benshu. A brigade of infantry and a regiment of cavalry crossed the Taitse river, but found themselves in a critical position and retired to the right bank, with the Japanese in pursuit. The Japanese hurled back sixteen counter attacks upon their right. The army lost 3,000 men in the fighting around Benshu.

A dispatch from Tokio to the Standard says: "It is officially reported that the Japanese Right army has succeeded in isolating a force of three or four divisions of Russians in the Benshu and Kiao-tan district. It is rumored that Kuropatkin himself is with the force, which seems doomed to destruction.

"The Central army captured eleven guns and the Left army twenty-five guns, while the spoils of the Right army are expected to be still more valuable. It is believed that the disastrous advance was forced on General Kuropatkin from St. Petersburg. In any case his move was an unexpected godsend for the Japanese army."

RUSSIANS ADMIT DEFEAT.

But Claim That It is by No Means Decisive.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 15.—There is scanty comment in the morning newspapers on the military situation. The Novosti frankly characterizes it as a defeat, basing its estimate on reports from the front up to Oct. 12. The Novosti says, however, that the defeat is by no means decisive, and hopes for better news, and a further advance before the battle ends.

The Russ says that while the retirement and loss of guns constitute an unpleasant episode, it is only an episode. General Kuropatkin's plans of battle, the article adds, are too extensive to be judged by a minor reverse to one part of the line, and better news is expected from the eastern flank, whence reports are yet meager, but where most important operations are proceeding.

Earthquake Shock in Hawaii.

Honolulu, Oct. 15.—An earthquake shock was felt at 3:45 a. m. Friday. Reports by wireless telegraph from various sections of the Hawaiian Islands say the shock was of general extent. It was felt by vessels fifteen miles at sea. No damage is reported.

BAD RUSSIAN DEFEAT

KUROPATKIN'S ARMY IS BEATEN AND LOSES AT LEAST SEVENTY BIG GUNS.

FIGHTING IS VERY STUBBORN

LOSSES ON THE RUSSIAN SIDE ALONE EXCEED FIFTEEN THOUSAND MEN.

KUROPATKIN IN GREAT PERIL

RUSSIAN COMMANDER AND PORTION OF HIS ARMY MAY BE CAPTURED BY JAPS.

While the latest direct news from the big battle raging south of Mukden says the result still hangs in the balance, from other sources come reports of a severe Russian defeat with the loss of at least seventy guns. According to one report General Kuropatkin himself is surrounded with a portion of his army and is in danger of being captured.

The whole Russian line is said to have been driven back over twenty miles, and the troops of the iron-minded Oku are said to be within twelve miles of Mukden.

There is reason to believe that Oyama has succeeded in enveloping the left flank of the Russian army.

Reports from the Russian left wing are lacking, leaving room for question if that part of General Kuropatkin's army is not in worse extremity than the center and right were at any stage of the battle.

That the situation is desperate on the Russian side is shown by the fact that every able bodied man is on the firing line and the wounded are left to their own resources.

On both sides there have been such losses in killed and wounded as to mark the contest for one of the bloodiest battles in history. Already the losses at Liaoyang have been approximated and the indications are that they will be exceeded, that of the Russians up to noon of Oct. 14 being estimated at 15,000.

The soldiers on both sides have shown the utmost tenacity and bravery and whole regiments have gone down before the fire of the enemy.

In official circles of St. Petersburg there is a disposition to argue that even should General Kuropatkin be obliged to retreat upon Mukden his position would be as favorable as when the order to advance was given on Oct. 6, and on the other hand the Japanese powers of future resistance will have been materially weakened.

The Russians at St. Petersburg are gloomy and the general staff is busy issuing rose-colored explanations of the Russian reverse. Little news comes from Tokio; the rifles of Japan are doing the talking for that country out on the firing line.

There is no news from Port Arthur.

LOSSES ARE IMMENSE

RUSSIANS ALONE LOSE FIFTEEN THOUSAND MEN SOUTH OF MUKDEN.

Mukden, Oct. 15.—The fighting raged Friday with the same bitterness as on the previous days of the engagement, and the result is still in the balance. The losses on both sides are enormous, that of the Russians being 15,000. Wounded soldiers are being brought in from all directions. The roads are crowded with long trains of wagons, baggage and transport wagons, as well as ambulances, being pressed into service, even Chinese two-wheeled carts filling the mandate of the military. Men afoot are limping in, using their guns as crutches, the less severely wounded supporting their comrades, after a first aid dressing on the firing line. Even across the fields you meet them, taking the shortest and straightest road for help and shelter. It is the most pitiful feature of the bloody drama being enacted at the front, when, stiffening with wounds, pain racked bodies sink to the roadside after the support of the danger and glory of the active fight have been withdrawn.

In the distance the sounds of battle are still plainly heard. The rain has ceased and the sun is shining serenely.

ATTACK FAILED EVERYWHERE.

Brave Russian Soldiers Sacrificed Themselves in Vain.

London, Oct. 15.—The Daily Chronicle's correspondent at Yentai, telegraphing on Oct. 12, via Fusan, Oct. 14, says:

"The Russian attack failed everywhere, and they are in full retreat along the whole line, pursued by the Japanese. Thirty Russian guns were captured. The Japanese turning movement is pressing the Russians back to Mukden. The Russians made sixteen counter attacks with splendid bravery, sacrificing themselves freely but unsuccessfully."

The Russ says that while the retirement and loss of guns constitute an unpleasant episode, it is only an episode.

General Kuropatkin's plans of battle, the article adds, are too extensive to be judged by a minor reverse to one part of the line, and better news is expected from the eastern flank, whence reports are yet meager, but where most important operations are proceeding.

You want good Hosiery!

It has not been a worry to us to know how cheap a line we can carry but how to give good dependable qualities at a very reasonable price.

Nor has it taken only a moments time to solve this problem. A complete line of hosiery is not selected in a moment. No one factory makes all the good things, nor does every wholesaler select all the best numbers.

From here and there we have selected lines until we believe we shall be able to offer you a selection that will more than please. If our hosiery is not satisfactory we will make it so.

Why not ask to see some of our splendid numbers when you are in the store during the opening, Tuesday.

SATISFACTORY IN VOLUME.

Trade as a Whole Better Than Weather Conditions Warrant.

New York, Oct. 15.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says despite irregularities due to warmer conditions or to reduction in crop movement, trade as a whole maintains a satisfactory volume.

Nothing of a boom character is to be noted, but many lines show gains over the corresponding period of 1903, confirmation of this being found in the best on record September railway earnings and clearings enlarged over last October's weekly totals.

The underlying confidence is, perhaps, best shown by the increased ease noted in collections, reports as to which are better than for nearly two years past. The better than expected corn and wheat crop outturns favored by exceptionally warm weather for this season of the year, has induced freer buying from jobbers in the central West and Northwest. Business is also better on the Pacific coast.

This same warm weather, however, is a drawback to retail business, which needs the stimulus of sharp, cold weather.

In the Southwest rather less activity is noted because of this, and at the South there is a general report that the warm, dry weather, while favorable to picking cotton, is holding back demand considerably. Eastern trade also reflects unseasonable weather in its effect upon current demand for fall and winter wear goods, but there is, in addition, a backwardness in demand for dry goods.

LOSSES ARE APPALLING.

Russians Said to Have Lost Fifty Thousand Men.

Tokio, Oct. 15.—From end to end Kuropatkin's great line has been crumpled up. Begun on Saturday night last, the battle still rages fiercely, and this (Saturday) morning finds the vast Russian and Japanese armies engaged in their death grapple.

The losses on both sides are appalling. The Russian losses exceed 50,000 and their wounded number over 15,000.

SMUGGLING IS CHARGED.

Officers Arrest Canadian Bringing Grain Across the Line.

Portau, N. D., Oct. 15.—Albert Walberg, a prominent Canadian, was arrested here during the evening on a complaint sworn to by George Scofield, United States custom officer, charging him with smuggling a load of flax and the team, also belonging to Walberg, was also seized.

KUROPATKIN'S ARMY IS BEATEN AND LOSES AT LEAST SEVENTY BIG GUNS.

FIGHTING IS VERY STUBBORN

LOSSES ON THE RUSSIAN SIDE ALONE EXCEED FIFTEEN THOUSAND MEN.

KUROPATKIN IN GREAT PERIL

RUSSIAN COMMANDER AND PORTION OF HIS ARMY MAY BE CAPTURED BY JAPS.

While the latest direct news from the big battle raging south of Mukden says the result still hangs in the balance, from other sources come reports of a severe Russian defeat with the loss of at least seventy guns. According to one report General Kuropatkin himself is surrounded with a portion of his army and is in danger of being captured.

The whole Russian line is said to have been driven back over twenty miles, and the troops of the iron-minded Oku, are said to be within twelve miles of Mukden.

There is reason to believe that Oyama has succeeded in enveloping the left flank of the Russian army.

Reports from the Russian left wing are lacking, leaving room for question if that part of General Kuropatkin's army is not in worse extremity than the center and right were at any stage of the battle.

That the situation is desperate on the Russian side is shown by the fact that every able bodied man is on the firing line and the wounded are left to their own resources.

On both sides there have been such losses in killed and wounded as to mark the contest for one of the bloodiest battles in history. Already the losses at Liaoyang have been approximated and the indications are that they will be exceeded, that of the Russians up to noon of Oct. 14 being estimated at 15,000.

The soldiers on both sides have shown the utmost tenacity and bravery and whole regiments have gone down before the fire of the enemy.

In official circles of St. Petersburg there is a disposition to argue that even should General Kuropatkin be obliged to retreat upon Mukden his position would be as favorable as when the order to advance was given on Oct. 6, and on the other hand the Japanese powers of future resistance will have been materially weakened.

The Russians at St. Petersburg are gloomy and the general staff is busy issuing rose-colored explanations of the Russian reverse. Little news comes from Tokio; the rifles of Japan are doing the talking for that country out on the firing line.

There is no news from Port Arthur.

LOSSES ARE IMMENSE

RUSSIANS ALONE LOSE FIFTEEN THOUSAND MEN SOUTH OF MUKDEN.

Mukden, Oct. 15.—The fighting raged Friday with the same bitterness as on the previous days of the engagement, and the result is still in the balance. The losses on both sides are enormous, that of the Russians being 15,000. Wounded soldiers are being brought in from all directions. The roads are crowded with long trains of wagons, baggage and transport wagons, as well as ambulances, being pressed into service, even Chinese two-wheeled carts filling the mandate of the military. Men afoot are limping in, using their guns as crutches, the less severely wounded supporting their comrades, after a first aid dressing on the firing line. Even across the fields you meet them, taking the shortest and straightest road for help and shelter. It is the most pitiful feature of the bloody drama being enacted at the front, when, stiffening with wounds, pain racked bodies sink to the roadside after the support of the danger and glory of the active fight have been withdrawn.

In the distance the sounds of battle are still plainly heard. The rain has ceased and the sun is shining serenely.

ATTACK FAILED EVERYWHERE.

Brave Russian Soldiers Sacrificed Themselves in Vain.

London, Oct. 15.—The Daily Chronicle's correspondent at Yentai, telegraphing on Oct. 12, via Fusan, Oct. 14, says:

"The Russian attack failed everywhere, and they are in full retreat along the whole line, pursued by the Japanese. Thirty Russian guns were captured. The Japanese turning movement is pressing the Russians back to Mukden. The Russians made sixteen counter attacks with splendid bravery, sacrificing themselves freely but unsuccessfully."

The Russ says that while the retirement and loss of guns constitute an unpleasant episode, it is only an episode. General Kuropatkin's plans of battle, the article adds, are too extensive to be judged by a minor reverse to one part of the line, and better news is expected from the eastern flank.

The Bemidji Pioneer remarks that if 5,000 people of Minneapolis wanted Dr. Ames to go to congress it will be pretty hard work to pick out twelve men in that city who will vote to convict him of a felony and send him to the pen. And from a disinterested standpoint it looks as though the Pioneer was right.

MAJOR J. M. BOWLER, leader of the Bryan Democrats, urges his party to forsake Johnson and give their support to R. C. Dunn giving his reason that the latter stands for the reforms advocated by progressive democrats. The Major charges that Johnson is the tool of the democratic bosses and that he is backed by the railroad and lumber interests.

UNDER A Brainerd date line the Minneapolis Journal says that an independent candidate for the legislature in the person of W. H. Myers will run in the Brainerd district because the democrats failed to nominate a candidate for that office at the primary election. The Journal has got its political wires crossed again as the democrats and republicans both have tickets in the field and there is no independent candidate thought of.

THE last day for the successful candidates at the primaries to file their certificates of nomination with the fee for the same in order to get on the ballot will be Oct. 18, and that will also be the last date for the defeated candidates to file with the auditor a statement of their expenses in connection with the election. To the unsuccessful candidates this seems to be rubbing it in.

JULIUS SCHMALL, who was chief clerk of the last legislature and therefore in a position to know, publishes in his paper, the Redwood Gazette, the following complimentary notice of the candidates for the legislature from this district: "H. A. Rider, of Little Falls, is a candidate for re-election from the Morrison-Crow Wing district and the voters of that district can do no better than to return him with Mr. Bouck. Mr. Rider had a penchant for looking after the interests of his district, which is continually in need of legislation, and the success that crowned his efforts is better known to his constituents than to the outside world. Both he and Mr. Bouck, new members last year, will be a great deal stronger for their people during another legislation session."

THE candidate for the senate in this district, Mr. John T. Frater, is a man whom all can cheerfully support. In his home city of Brainerd, where he is of course best known, he is held in high esteem by all, republican and democrat alike. For sixteen years he has held the office of county treasurer and has been re-elected year after year with little or no opposition. A staunch, uncompromising republican, always loyal to the party he is deserving of every republican vote in the district. His opponent is a most excellent gentleman and a man of good ability but as state senator from this district he would be at a disadvantage with the senate largely republican, as it is sure to be. Vote for Honest John Frater for senator.—Roy-alton Banner.

Over in Mille Lacs county where R. C. Dunn lives he is expected to poll practically the solid vote regardless of politics, and the old saying that "when a man is well thought of at home he is entitled to respect abroad" is true. E. E. Price, who was at one time elected to the legislature on the democratic ticket from the old 46th district in which this county was then located, says in the Milaca Times:

"I have always been a democrat and am one yet, but the dirty tactics being employed against Bob Dunn cannot meet with my approval. I have always been in opposition to the republican party in this county and have come in contact with Bob Dunn as an opponent, but I want to say that I know he is not the kind of man that Examiner Sam Johnson and the Minneapolis Journal are trying to make him out to be. Mr. Dunn is recognized by the democrats of this county as a man of courage and integrity, and his administration of the affairs of the office of state auditor is about the only thing that is meritorious about the past republican state administration. I want to say too that I don't know of a democrat in Milaca that will not vote for Bob Dunn for governor."

RECEIVED WITH ENTHUSIASM.

Speech of Senator Fairbanks at a Meeting in Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Completing a day of speechmaking through Illinois, Charles W. Fairbanks, Republican candidate for vice-president, last night addressed an audience that filled the First Regiment armory to overflowing.

This is the first time that Senator Fairbanks has spoken in Chicago since he received the nomination and so much enthusiasm was manifested by his listeners that the meeting resembled the vigorous rallies of 1896 and 1900. Because of the long journey to California, finished Thursday, Senator Fairbanks' remarks were brief but pointed, bringing forth cheers. To add to the enthusiasm of the gathering Joseph G. Cannon, speaker of the house of representatives, addressed the audience in his characteristic manner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gearey, of Pine River, came down from the north this morning to do some shopping, returning again on the M. & I. passenger.

Col. Freeman Thorpe arrived in the city this morning from Hubert and left for Montana where he has contracted to paint portraits of some of the notable men of that state.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Butler passed through the city this afternoon en route from Staples to Pequot where they will visit over Sunday. They were joined here by Mrs. Herrmann, who will also visit at Pequot.

The electrical storm this morning caused some inconvenience to the electric light department. Many of the fuses were burned out throughout the city and the linemen have been busy today making repairs.

A bevy of politicians consisting of Hon. I. W. Bouck, of Royalton, Attorney E. A. Kling and Crawford Sheldon, of Little Falls and City Editor Workman, of the Transcript, passed through the city today en route to Motley from whence they go to Lincoln where there will be a big political meeting this evening.

There was a delightful party at Elk hall last evening when the Elks and their families enjoyed the giddy whirl until about 1 o'clock. These parties are becoming extremely popular with the Elks and it is thought that when they are known to be of such an interesting character more will avail themselves of the opportunity of being present. They are not dress affairs but everybody goes and has a good time.

The Royal Neighbors gave the Modern Woodmen a surprise party last evening at their hall. At the close of their meeting the Royal Neighbors walked in and gave a very nice drill, followed by a very interesting program which was appreciated by all. All did very well, especially little Margie Canan, who was highly applauded. Then the degree staff marched out and brought in well filled plates to which the Woodmen did justice. All present had a very pleasant time and hope the sisters won't forget to come again.

THE candidate for the senate in this district, Mr. John T. Frater, is a man whom all can cheerfully support. In his home city of Brainerd, where he is of course best known, he is held in high esteem by all, republican and democrat alike. For sixteen years he has held the office of county treasurer and has been re-elected year after year with little or no opposition. A staunch, uncompromising republican, always loyal to the party he is deserving of every republican vote in the district. His opponent is a most excellent gentleman and a man of good ability but as state senator from this district he would be at a disadvantage with the senate largely republican, as it is sure to be. Vote for Honest John Frater for senator.—Royaltown Banner.

OVER in Mille Lacs county where R. C. Dunn lives he is expected to poll practically the solid vote regardless of politics, and the old saying that "when a man is well thought of at home he is entitled to respect abroad" is true. E. E. Price, who was at one time elected to the legislature on the democratic ticket from the old 46th district in which this county was then located, says in the Milaca Times:

"I have always been a democrat and am one yet, but the dirty tactics being employed against Bob Dunn cannot meet with my approval. I have always been in opposition to the republican party in this county and have come in contact with Bob Dunn as an opponent, but I want to say that I know he is not the kind of man that Examiner Sam Johnson and the Minneapolis Journal are trying to make him out to be. Mr. Dunn is recognized by the democrats of this county as a man of courage and integrity, and his administration of the affairs of the office of state auditor is about the only thing that is meritorious about the past republican state administration. I want to say too that I don't know of a democrat in Milaca that will not vote for Bob Dunn for governor."

Speech of Senator Fairbanks at a Meeting in Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—Completing a day of speechmaking through Illinois, Charles W. Fairbanks, Republican candidate for vice-president, last night addressed an audience that filled the First Regiment armory to overflowing.

This is the first time that Senator Fairbanks has spoken in Chicago since he received the nomination and so much enthusiasm was manifested by his listeners that the meeting resembled the vigorous rallies of 1896 and 1900. Because of the long journey to California, finished Thursday, Senator Fairbanks' remarks were brief but pointed, bringing forth cheers. To add to the enthusiasm of the gathering Joseph G. Cannon, speaker of the house of representatives, addressed the audience in his characteristic manner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gearey, of Pine River, came down from the north this morning to do some shopping, returning again on the M. & I. passenger.

William Spencer left last night for St. Paul. He will be joined there by Mrs. Spencer and Miss Clara Small and together they will go to St. Louis to take in the fair.

Col. Freeman Thorpe arrived in the city this morning from Hubert and left for Montana where he has contracted to paint portraits of some of the notable men of that state.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Butler passed through the city this afternoon en route from Staples to Pequot where they will visit over Sunday. They were joined here by Mrs. Herrmann, who will also visit at Pequot.

The electrical storm this morning caused some inconvenience to the electric light department. Many of the fuses were burned out throughout the city and the linemen have been busy today making repairs.

A bevy of politicians consisting of Hon. I. W. Bouck, of Royaltown, Attorney E. A. Kling and Crawford Sheldon, of Little Falls and City Editor Workman, of the Transcript, passed through the city today en route to Motley from whence they go to Lincoln where there will be a big political meeting this evening.

There was a delightful party at Elk hall last evening when the Elks and their families enjoyed the giddy whirl until about 1 o'clock. These parties are becoming extremely popular with the Elks and it is thought that when they are known to be of such an interesting character more will avail themselves of the opportunity of being present. They are not dress affairs but everybody goes and has a good time.

OKU IS CLOSE TO MUKDEN.

Jap General Occupies a City Near Russian Stronghold.

London, Oct. 15.—All accounts of the fighting south of Mukden that have reached London appear to confirm the completeness of the Japanese victory and the only question discussed by military critics is whether General Kurokupkin will be able to make as orderly a retreat as he did from Liaoyang, and whether the Japanese have sufficient fresh reserves to undertake a successful pursuit.

In this connection the Standard's Yentel correspondent and a dispatch to a news agency from Tokio assert that General Oku's army has occupied Pachiatse, only twelve miles from Mukden. It is thought, however, that the Japanese advance could hardly have pushed as far as these reports make it appear and probably the error arises out of the difficulty of locating places in various reports.

Nothing reliable has thus far been received concerning the fate of the Russian force reported to have been isolated in the vicinity of Benshu.

AN INSECT MENU.

Every Item Theron Long Known and Esteemed by Epicures.

Here is a typical insect menu of which no one need be afraid to partake, since every item has been known and esteemed by insect eaters for generations past. It was served not long ago, according to Pearson's Weekly, at the table of a rich London epicure, who is also an enthusiastic advocate of an insectarian dietary:

Green Caterpillar Soup.
Fried Locust with Wood Louse Sauce.
Curried Cockchafer.

Wasp Grubs Baked in the Comb.

Stag Beetle Larvae on Toast.

Moths Baked in Batter.

Deviled Wireworms.

Grasshoppers au Gratin.

The green caterpillars that compose the soup feed entirely upon vegetables, and mostly upon particular vegetables most relished by man, such as cabbage and lettuce.

In appearance the soup itself is not unlike clear turtle, while its flavor is delicious.

The locusts, which constitute the second course, have, as every one is aware, been esteemed by gormands the world over and from the remotest antiquity. "Eat ye the locust after his kind" is the Biblical injunction, and we know that John the Baptist is recorded as having lived for some considerable time upon "locusts and wild honey."

There are of course many ways of preparing them. They can be fried after their legs and wings have been plucked off, which was, as a matter of fact, the process adopted in this particular instance, or they may be powdered and baked into cakes or curried or boiled, turning red, like lobsters, in the process.

The wood louse sauce if properly made with fresh butter, flour, milk, pepper and salt will be found fully equal to shrimp, which it much resembles in taste. Indeed the wood louse, although he lives on land, is first cousin to that much relished crustacean.

Cockchafers, curried or otherwise, are delicious if selected of a serviceable size and plumpness. So, too, are their grubs when full grown. They should then be at least two inches in length and fat in proportion and may be eaten uncooked, like oysters, or stewed in milk.

Perhaps, however, the most toothsome of all insect delicacies is that which comes forth on our "menu of the day," wasp grubs baked in the comb. These grubs have been fed by their parents on a saccharine fluid composed of fruit and vegetable juices and are simply tiny balls of sugary fat possessing a flavor as exquisite as it is unique. No one who has once tasted them will ever again be surprised at the preference shown by fish for this particular grub when used as a bait.

The stag beetle larva is of course identical with the cossus, which the old Roman epicures used to fatten for their table upon flour and wine. The sixth course should be served steaming hot, since there is no more appetizing odor than that emanating from a baked baked moth.

Deviled wireworms are eaten in the form of a paste, spread upon sippets of toast, and taste not unlike anchovies when treated in similar fashion.

The Bemidji Pioneer remarks that if 5,000 people of Minneapolis wanted Dr. Ames to go to congress it will be pretty hard work to pick out twelve men in that city who will vote to convict him of a felony and send him to the pen. And from a disinterested standpoint it looks as though the Pioneer was right.

MAJOR J. M. BOWLER, leader of the Bryan democrats, urges his party to forsake Johnson and give their support to R. C. Dunn giving his reason that the latter stands for the reforms advocated by progressive democrats. The Major charges that Johnson is the tool of the democratic bosses and that he is backed by the railroad and lumber interests.

UNDER a Brainerd date line the Minneapolis Journal says that an independent candidate for the legislature in the person of W. H. Myers will run in the Brainerd district because the democrats failed to nominate a candidate for that office at the primary election. The Journal has got its political wires crossed again as the democrats and republicans both have tickets in the field and there is no independent candidate thought of.

THE last day for the successful candidates at the primaries to file their certificates of nomination with the fee for the same in order to get on the ballot will be Oct. 18, and that will also be the last date for the defeated candidates to file with the auditor a statement of their expenses in connection with the election. To the unsuccessful candidates this seems to be rubbing it in.

JULIUS SCHMALL, who was chief clerk of the last legislature and therefore in a position to know, publishes in his paper, the Redwood Gazette, the following complimentary notice of the candidates for the legislature from this district: "H. A. Rider, of Little Falls, is a candidate for re-election from the Morrison-Crow Wing district and the voters of that district can do no better than to return him with Mr. Bouck. Mr. Rider had a penchant for looking after the interests of his district, which is continually in need of legislation, and the success that crowned his efforts is better

THE candidate for the senate in this district, Mr. John T. Frater, is a man whom all can cheerfully support. In his home city of Brainerd, where he is of course best known, he is held in high esteem by all, republican and democrat alike. For sixteen years he has held the office of county treasurer and has been re-elected year after year with little or no opposition. At the close of their meeting the Royal Neighbors walked in and gave a very nice drill, followed by a very interesting program which was appreciated by all. All did very well, especially little Margie Canan, who was highly applauded. Then the degree staff marched out and brought in well filled plates to which the Woodmen did justice. All present had a very pleasant time and hope the sisters won't forget to come again.

$40,000 Worth of Merchandise

Going at Prices

Never before heard of in this city. It is the result of an overstock—must and will be sold if prices can do it. This sale will mark an epoch in Brainerd merchandising. We mention a few lots in our various departments, but we have a great many more bargains to offer.

Dry Goods Department

Our Big Dry Goods Department is compelled to reduce its stock, and to do it the prices go down to a mighty sacrifice in Colored Dress Goods, in Black Dress Goods, Fancy Brilliantines, Scottish Suitings, all wool Flannels, Cashmeres, Granites, Venetian Flannels and Cheviots. Our stock in this line consists of all the new and stylish fabrics the market affords, and we now offer the same to you at unheard of reduced prices.

Summer and Wash Goods

News of interest from the Summer and Wash Goods Department. Beginning with this sale will begin a sale on Table Linens, Napkins, White Goods, Prints, Ginghams and Muslins, which will equal any sale ever inaugurated. We mention a few prices: Bleached linen toweling, 11c worth 15 cents, now.... 9c Bleached linen toweling, 12c worth 12 cents, now.... 7c Bleached linen toweling, 10 cents, now.... 7c

FEARFUL OF DISASTER

RUSSIANS IN ST. PETERSBURG
TAKE A GLOOMY VIEW OF
THE SITUATION.

MANY WILD RUMORS AFLAFT
NEARLY EVERYBODY IN RUSSIAN
CAPITAL IS READY TO BE-LIEVE THE WORST.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 15.—The great feeling of concern which exists in the high circles in the Russian capital by no means equals the foreboding of coming disaster pervading the general public, which is indulging in the deepest pessimism. In the absence of official news the public is feeding on the wildest rumors of defeat suffered by General Kuropatkin Friday. The fact that no word regarding the battle has been officially given out, only confirms the popular fear. The explanation offered that Friday was a holiday does not suffice to allay apprehension.

General Kuropatkin's report of the result of the day's operations has reached Emperor Nicholas at Tsarko Selo, but it was not returned before the war commission, which sat only until 9:30 p. m., adjourned. The czar is represented as being bitterly disappointed and spending hours with his cabinet, studying out with the aid of his military aides, the reports of the battle.

The general staff, however, by no means despairs, though admitting that the tide of battle the past two days has been against General Kuropatkin.
The general staff says the battle is not yet over and that in any event there is no question of a rout.

The depressing feature of the situation is that every one is willing to believe the worst. Thus reports from Tokio and elsewhere stating that the Japanese are advancing and the Russians falling back are accepted with faith based on the previous Russian retreat.

Forced to Take the Offensive.
Many reports are current as to the genuineness of the forward movement.
It is freely said that General Kuropatkin was forced into taking the offensive by pressure from St. Petersburg.
This has been officially denied, and as General Kuropatkin's order to advance was given over his own signature it seems likely that he will have to bear all the responsibility whether the situation is of his own making or not.

Friends of General Kuropatkin say the present offensive movement was inspired from St. Petersburg, as was doubtless General Stakelberg's movement for the relief of Port Arthur, and if General Kuropatkin has obeyed others higher than himself they are responsible. Other supporters of General Kuropatkin argue that whatever may be the outcome of the past four days' fighting it is not likely to be an irretrievable disaster to General Kuropatkin's army. It is pointed out that General Kuropatkin was forced to advance against his better judgment, he is too good a general to have instituted a movement which he did not feel strong enough to carry through without leaving open a road for retreat, and while the Russian forward movement may be an absolute failure so far as the relief of Port Arthur is concerned and though Kuropatkin may lose many men and some guns, this must be the worst that can happen.

Would Make Little Difference.
If General Kuropatkin should succeed in keeping the alignment of his forces, and the dispatches indicate that he is doing this, and the Japanese do not succeed in breaking up or cutting off any considerable portion of his army, he will not be in a much worse position, even if he should be forced to retire to Mukden, than he was before the advance began.

The probabilities are that the losses on both sides will be about equal.
Dispatches from the front give a vivid picture of the desperate character of the fighting along the whole line. The Russian platenmen have been again forced to engage in hill fighting, which is little to their liking.
There have been desperate and repeated attacks on almost inaccessible positions which leave no question of the resolution and gallantry of the Russian forces. Positions and guns have been captured and recaptured in fierce hand to hand encounters, while a pit-less heavy downpour has flooded the trenches and drenched both armies without allaying the desperate conflict.

The latest word directly from the field of battle is a Mukden press dispatch in which it is stated that 15,000 Russians had been wounded, which, together with Friday's casualties, would make the total probably exceed the figures of Liaoyang and make the fight rank as one of the bloodiest battles in history.

ALL ON BOARD PERISH.
Schooner Wentworth Struck on the Chatham Bar.

Chatham, Mass., Oct. 15.—A small part of the forward section of the hull and a slanting foremast stand as mute reminders of the ocean tragedy enacted Thursday night when the three-masted schooner Wentworth of Montgomery, N. B., struck on Chatham bar during a raging northerly gale and all the twelve persons on board perished in the sea.

The Wentworth was bound from Hillsboro, N. B., to Newark, N. J., with a cargo of plaster rock. On board, so far as known, were Captain Esaus Priddle, his wife and three children, and a crew of seven men.

St. Paul Switchman Killed.
St. Paul, Oct. 15.—Nels Anderson, a switchman, living at 677 Wells street,
was ground to atoms while at work in the Omaha yards at East St. Paul.
Friday. The unfortunate man fell between two cars which he was in the act of switching and was instantly killed.
Two other trains also passed over the body.

TELLS ON HENRY G. DAVIS.

Continuous Speechmaking Renders the Carriedate Hoarse.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Oct. 15.—Four days of continuous speechmaking is beginning to tell on the vocal powers of Henry G. Davis, Democratic vice presidential candidate. Aside from hoarseness, however, Mr. Davis seems as fit as when he began his continuous performance tour of his own state.
David B. Hill, in a speech, said:

"I am sure that if Alton B. Parker shall be elected president he will endeavor to have the department of commerce and labor divided and see to it that a practical labor man, a genuine and intelligent representative of labor interests will have the place devoted to labor interests, as has been originally intended, and a man devoted to the interests of commerce at the head of the commerce department."

The red fire of enthusiasm lit up Parkersburg last night. Rockets, tin horns, megaphones, marching clubs, brass bands and the small boy had complete control of the town. In the evening two meetings were addressed by all of the speakers of the party. The meetings along the road were largely attended.

REVIVAL OF RELIGION.

Discussion of Its Need the Feature of Meeting at Des Moines.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 15.—The discussion of the need and prospects of a genuine and widespread revival of religion was a feature of Friday's session of the national Congregational council. The subject was discussed by four speakers, who agreed that the signs of an existing revival are present and that a better state of things is coming in the religious world. At night two large labor meetings were held.

MINNESOTA MILLIONAIRE DEAD.

Edwin P. Wells Expires in Minneapolis of Heart Trouble.

Minneapolis, Oct. 15.—Edwin P.
Wells, the millionaire treasurer of the Brainerd Lumber company, was found dead in bed Friday. His death was doubtless due to an affection of the heart from which he was known to have suffered. Mr. Wells was born sixty-five years ago at Wethersfield, Conn.

FALL TO THEIR DEATH

HUSBAND AND WIFE KILLED IN EXHIBITING A FIRE ESCAPE
IN ST. PAUL.

St. Paul, Oct. 15.—A woman stepped out of a third-story window in the Germania Life building, Fourth and Minnesota streets, Friday afternoon, and clasped her arms about the neck of a man hanging to the rope of a patent fire escape. The rope parted and the couple dashed to death on the stone walk fifty feet below.

The man was B. W. Scammon, a young inventor of Minneapolis; the woman his young wife. Both died within a few hours.

Fifty feet through the air they fell and they struck on the sidewalk and were battered to death.

Both were alive, although unconscious, and the ambulance from St.
Joseph hospital conveyed the bruised bodies to that institution with dispatch. Both died later in the day.

The accident was the result of a test of a rope fire escape, and according to investigations made immediately after it took place it could have been prevented had Scammon accepted the suggestion of a member of the Commercial club to place several sheets of newspaper between the rope and the edge of the stone cornice, which events proved, acted like a knife and sawed the life line cleanly in two at the ninth floor.

Scammon slid softly down from the eighth floor to the third and it was when the weight of his wife was added to the strain on the slender rope at the third story that the cord parted and sent the couple to their deaths. A large crowd witnessed the accident.

INVOLVES MINNESOTA LANDS.

Two Cases Withdrawn From Federal Supreme Court.

Washington, Oct. 15.—By an agreement of counsel in the case of James Belden, appellant, against the Midway company, involving iron lands in Northern Minnesota, has been withdrawn from the United States supreme court. The case was appealed from the United States circuit court of appeals for the Eighth circuit and was on the docket of the supreme court of the October term.

Similar action has been taken in the case of Houghton E. Jones and Charles W. Hillard, appellants, against the Germania Iron company. This case involved the ownership of iron lands in the Duluth land district which were located with Sioux half-breed scrip.

DRUGGISTS ELECT OFFICERS.

Minneapolis Man Chosen President of Retail Association.

St. Louis, Oct. 15.—The sixth annual convention of the National Association of Retail Druggists ended Friday with the election of the following officers:

President, Thomas Voegeli, Minneapolis; vice presidents, Charles R. Judge,
St. Louis; Otto C. Bastian, South Bend, Ind.; F. A. Snow, Wichita, Kan.;
secretary, Thomas V. Wooten, Chicago; treasurer, Charles F. Mann, Detroit.

Registration Is Light.

New York, Oct. 15.—Friday was the first day of registration in New York city. Returns from Manhattan and the Bronx showed a smaller number of voters for the first day than registered on the opening day in 1900.
Throughout New York state heavy gains in registration were made.

St. Paul Switchman Killed.
St. Paul, Oct. 15.—Nels Anderson, a
switchman, living at 677 Wells street,
was ground to atoms while at work in
the Omaha yards at East St. Paul.
Friday. The unfortunate man fell be-

LAW IS NOT CHANGED

EPISCOPAL HOUSE OF DEPUTIES
REJECTS AMENDMENT TO DI-VORCE CANON.

MATTER SETTLED FOR A TIME

PRESENT LAW FAVORS THE RE-
MARRIAGE OF INNOCENT DI-VORCED PERSONS.

Boston, Oct. 15.—The house of deputies of the Episcopal general convention at the close of a four days' debate Friday rejected an amendment to the divorce canon which sought to prevent the remarriage of divorced persons by clergymen of the denomination. While the house of bishops may yet act on the question it is certain that no change will be made by the present convention. The present law of the church, which has been in operation since 1859, allows the remarriage of the innocent party to a divorce granted for infidelity. At several conventions attempts have been made to repeal this law and when a vote was taken Friday by the house of deputies sitting as a committee of the whole on the question of referring the proposed amendment to the house itself, the reformers were successful by a vote of 214 to 191, and this vote was regarded as representing the actual strength of the contending forces.

The final vote, however, was taken by dioceses and orders and where a diocese was evenly divided in sentiment its strength was counted in the negative. The vote by dioceses was:
Clerical, for the amendment, 30; against, 21; divided, 10; lay vote, for, 25; against, 24; divided, 6.

Practically the entire strength of the Middle Western states, the stronghold of the high church party, declared for the proposed reforms, but the Pacific states and a number of the Southern states voted against a change of the present canon.

FEARFUL OF DISASTER

RUSSIANS IN ST. PETERSBURG
TAKE A GLOOMY VIEW OF
THE SITUATION.

MANY WILD RUMORS AFLAFT
NEARLY EVERYBODY IN RUSSIAN
CAPITAL IS READY TO BE-LIEVE THE WORST.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 15.—The great feeling of concern which exists in the high circles in the Russian capital by no means equals the foreboding of coming disaster pervading the general public, which is indulging in the deepest pessimism. In the absence of official news the public is feeding on the wildest rumors of defeat suffered by General Kuropatkin Friday. The fact that no word regarding the battle has been officially given out, only confirms the popular fear. The explanation offered that Friday was a holiday does not suffice to allay apprehension. General Kuropatkin's report of the result of the day's operations has reached Emperor Nicholas at Tsarkoe Selo, but it was not returned before the war commission, which sat only until 9:30 p.m., adjourned. The czar is represented as being bitterly disappointed and spending hours with his cabinet, studying out with the aid of his military aides, the reports of the battle.

The general staff, however, by no means despairs, though admitting that the tide of battle the past two days has been against General Kuropatkin. The general staff says the battle is not yet over and that in any event there is no question of a rout.

The depressing feature of the situation is that every one is willing to believe the worst. Thus reports from Tokio and elsewhere stating that the Japanese are advancing and the Russians falling back are accepted with faith based on the previous Russian retreat.

Forced to Take the Offensive.

Many reports are current as to the genuineness of the forward movement. It is freely said that General Kuropatkin was forced into taking the offensive by pressure from St. Petersburg. This has been officially denied, and as General Kuropatkin's order to advance was given over his own signature it seems likely that he will have to bear all the responsibility whether the situation is of his own making or not.

Friends of General Kuropatkin say the present offensive movement was inspired from St. Petersburg, as was doubtless General Stakelberg's movement for the relief of Port Arthur, and if General Kuropatkin has obeyed others higher than himself they are responsible. Other supporters of General Kuropatkin argue that whatever may be the outcome of the past four days' fighting it is not likely to be an irretrievable disaster to General Kuropatkin's army. It is pointed out if General Kuropatkin was forced to advance against his better judgment, he is too good a general to have instituted a movement which he did not feel strong enough to carry through without leaving open a road for retreat, and while the Russian forward movement may be an absolute failure so far as the relief of Port Arthur is concerned and though Kuropatkin may lose many men and some guns, this must be the worst that can happen.

Would Make Little Difference.

If General Kuropatkin should succeed in keeping the alignment of his forces, and the dispatches indicate that he is doing this, and the Japanese do not succeed in breaking up or cutting off any considerable portion of his army, he will not be in a much worse position, even if he should be forced to retire to Mukden, than he was before the advance began.

The probabilities are that the losses on both sides will be about equal.

Dispatches from the front give a vivid picture of the desperate character of the fighting along the whole line. The Russian plainmen have been again forced to engage in hill fighting, which is little to their liking. There have been desperate and repeated attacks on almost inaccessible positions which leave no question of the resolution and gallantry of the Russian forces. Positions and guns have been captured and recaptured in fierce hand to hand encounters, while a pitiless heavy downpour has flooded the trenches and drenched both armies without allaying the desperate conflict.

The latest word directly from the field of battle is a Mukden press dispatch in which it is stated that 15,000 Russians had been wounded, which, together with Friday's casualties, would make the total probably exceed the figures of LiaoYang and make the fight rank as one of the bloodiest battles in history.

DRUGGISTS ELECT OFFICERS.

Schooner Wentworth Struck on the Chatham Bar.

Chatham, Mass., Oct. 15.—A small part of the forward section of the hull and a slanting foremast stand as mute reminders of the ocean tragedy enacted Thursday night when the three-masted schooner Wentworth of Monson, N. B., struck on Chatham bar during a raging northerly gale and all the twenty persons on board perished in the sea.

The Wentworth was bound from Hillsboro, N. B., to Newark, N. J., with a cargo of plaster rock. On board, so far as known, were Captain Esau Priddle, his wife and three children, and a crew of seven men.

St. Paul Switchman Killed.

St. Paul, Oct. 15.—Nels Anderson, a switchman, living at 677 Wells street, was ground to atoms while at work in the Omaha yards at East St. Paul Friday. The unfortunate man fell between two cars which he was in the act of switching and was instantly killed. Two other trains also passed over the body.

Registration Is Light.

New York, Oct. 15.—Friday was the first day of registration in New York city. Returns from Manhattan and the Bronx showed a smaller number of voters for the first day than registered on the opening day in 1900. Throughout New York state heavy gains in registration were made.

TELLS ON HENRY G. DAVIS.

Continuous Speechmaking Renders the Candidate Hoarse.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Oct. 15.—Four days of continuous speechmaking is beginning to tell on the vocal powers of Henry G. Davis, Democratic vice presidential candidate. Aside from hoarseness, however, Mr. Davis seems as fit as when he began his continuous performance tour of his own state. David B. Hill, in a speech, said:

"I am sure that if Alton B. Parker shall be elected president he will endeavor to have the department of commerce and labor divided and see to it that a practical labor man, a genuine and intelligent representative of labor interests will have the place devoted to labor interests, as has been originally intended, and a man devoted to the interests of commerce at the head of the commerce department."

The red fire of enthusiasm lit up Parkersburg last night. Rockets, tin horns, megaphones, marching clubs, brass bands and the small boy had complete control of the town. In the evening two meetings were addressed by all of the speakers of the party. The meetings along the road were largely attended.

REVIVAL OF RELIGION.

Discussion of Its Need at Des Moines.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 15.—The discussion of the need and prospects of a genuine and widespread revival of religion was a feature of Friday's session of the national Congregational council. The subject was discussed by four speakers, who agreed that the signs of an existing revival are present and that a better state of things is coming in the religious world. At night two large labor meetings were held.

MINNESOTA MILLIONAIRE DEAD.

Edwin P. Wells Expires in Minneapolis of Heart Trouble.

Minneapolis, Oct. 15.—Edwin P. Welles, the millionaire treasurer of the Brainerd Lumber company, was found dead in bed Friday. His death was doubtless due to an affection of the heart from which he was known to have suffered. Mr. Welles was born sixty-five years ago at Wethersfield, Conn.

FALL TO THEIR DEATH.

HUSBAND AND WIFE KILLED IN EXHIBITING A FIRE ESCAPE IN ST. PAUL.

St. Paul, Oct. 15.—A woman stepped out of a third-story window in the Germania Life building, Fourth and Minnesota streets, Friday afternoon, and clasped her arms about the neck of a man hanging to the rope of a patient fire escape. The rope parted and the couple dashed to death on the stone wall fifty feet below.

The man was B. W. Scammon, a young inventor of Minneapolis; the woman his young wife. Both died within a few hours.

Fifty feet through the air they fell and they struck on the sidewalk and were battered to death.

Both were alive, although unconscious, and the ambulance from St. Joseph hospital conveyed the bruised bodies to that institution with dispatch. Both died later in the day.

The accident was the result of a test of a rope fire escape, and according to investigations made immediately after it took place it could have been prevented had Scammon accepted the suggestion of a member of the Commercial club to place several sheets of newspaper between the rope and the edge of the stone cornice, which events proved, acted like a knife and sawed the rope cleanly in two at the ninth floor.

Scammon slid softly down from the eighth floor to the third and it was when the weight of his wife was added to the strain on the slender rope at the third story that the cord parted and sent the couple to their deaths. A large crowd witnessed the accident.

INVOLVES MINNESOTA LANDS.

Two Cases Withdrawn From Federal Supreme Court.

Washington, Oct. 15.—By an agreement of counsel the case of James Belden, appellant, against the Midway company, involving iron lands in Northern Minnesota, has been withdrawn from the United States supreme court. The case was appealed from the United States circuit court of appeals for the Eighth circuit and was on the docket of the supreme court of the October term.

Similar action has been taken in the case of Houghton E. Jones and Charles W. Hillard, appellants, against the Germania Iron company. This case involved the ownership of iron lands in the Duluth land district which were located with Sioux half-breed scrip.

DRUGGISTS ELECT OFFICERS.

Minneapolis Man Chosen President of Retail Association.

St. Louis, Oct. 15.—The sixth annual convention of the National Association of Retail Druggists ended Friday with the election of the following officers:

President, Thomas Voegeli, Minneapolis; vice presidents, Charles R. Judge, St. Louis; Otto C. Bastian, South Bend, Ind.; F. A. Snow, Wichita, Kan.; secretary, Thomas V. Wooten, Chicago; treasurer, Charles F. Mann, Detroit.

Bryan Touring Indiana.

Richmond, Ind., Oct. 15.—In excellent physical condition, notwithstanding that he had delivered seven speeches, some of which occupied more than an hour's time en route from Fort Wayne to Richmond, William J. Bryan closed the third day of his Indiana tour at night with an address in Richmond.

Charged With Manslaughter.

Waukesha, Wis., Oct. 15.—J. W. Preston, conductor, and J. D. Horton, engineer of the Missouri Pacific freight train that collided with a passenger train Monday, killing twenty-nine persons, have been charged with manslaughter in the fourth degree.

Registration Is Light.

New York, Oct. 15.—Friday was the first day of registration in New York city. Returns from Manhattan and the Bronx showed a smaller number of voters for the first day than registered on the opening day in 1900. Throughout New York state heavy gains in registration were made.

LAW IS NOT CHANGED

REJECTS AMENDMENT TO DIVORCE CANON.

PRESENT LAW FAVORS THE REMARRIAGE OF INNOCENT DIVORCED PERSONS.

Boston, Oct. 15.—The house of deputies of the Episcopal general convention at the close of a four days' debate Friday rejected an amendment to the divorce canon which sought to prevent the remarriage of divorced persons by clergymen of the denomination.

While the house of bishops may yet act on the question it is certain that no change will be made by the present convention. The present law of the church, which has been in operation since 1859, allows the remarriage of the innocent party to a divorce granted for infidelity. At several conventions attempts have been made to repeal this law and when a vote was taken Friday by the house of deputies sitting as a committee of the whole on the question of referring the proposed amendment to the house itself, the reformers were successful by a vote of 214 to 191, and this vote was regarded as representing the actual strength of the contending forces.

The final vote, however, was taken by dioceses and orders and where a diocese was evenly divided in sentiment its strength was counted in the negative. The vote by dioceses was: Clerical, for the amendment, 30; against, 21; divided, 10; lay vote, for, 25; against, 24; divided, 6.

Practically the entire strength of the Middle Western states, the stronghold of the high church party, declared for the proposed reforms, but the Pacific states and a number of the Southern states voted against a change of the present canon.

FEDERAL TREASURER'S REPORT.

Shows a Deficiency of Over Forty Million Dollars.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Ellis H. Roberts, treasurer of the United States, has submitted to Secretary Shaw the annual report on the transactions of the treasury during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1904.

The net ordinary revenues are shown to have been $540,631,749, a decrease of $19,764,925 as compared with 1903, and the net ordinary expenditures $582,402,321, an increase of $76,303,314. In the receipts the principal falling off was $23,295,017 in customs, while in the disbursements, the important increases were $11,423,445 in commerce and labor, $80,588,530 in treasury proper and $20,338,057 for the navy. Unusual expenditures were $50,000,000 on account of the Panama canal and $4,600,000 loaned to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition company, which latter has now been nearly all repaid. But for these, the recorded deficiency of $41,770,571 would have been changed to a surplus of $12,823,428.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"GRIMES CELLAR DOOR"

Pantomime, farce, and acrobatic features in abundance are the elements of the production, the "Grimes' Cellar Door" which will be seen at the Brainerd opera house Monday night. To enumerate the numerous humorous scenes in the play would be to describe it from start to finish. There is plenty of fun going on all the time in the new "Grimes' Cellar Door," and the entertainment stands alone in its class. The company is headed by James B. Mackie (Grimes-me-Boy) for years Chas. Hoyt's leading comedian, and also includes the following well-known artists:

The famous Onri family, five in number, from the London Hippodrome, marvellous equilibrists, acrobats, pantomimists and jugglers in the European sensation, "An Interrupted Supper;" the clever singers and dancers, the Major Sisters from the London Alhambra; the sweet singer Harry Wright, also Lida Dexter, Alice Lewis, Josephine Lynn, Della Cushman, Frank Vane, Brothers Denton, Alice Martin and others. Seats now selling at Dunn's.

MISS BLOTKY, THE READER.

Miss Blotky, the dramatic reader, is one of the star attractions of the season in the way of entertainment in this line. She will be heard at the First Congregational church next Tuesday evening and it will be well worth anyone's time and money to go and hear her. The Daily Capital, of Des Moines, Ia., has the following very complimentary notice of Miss Blotky's work:

"Miss Blotky's appearance was one of excellent stage grace, and the production was delivered with an ease which made it exceedingly beautiful."

A SORT OF LOVE FEAST

Meeting of the Two East Brainerd Fire Companies Held Last Night in the Hose House

There was a meeting of Hose Companies Nos. 3 and 4 last night in the East Brainerd hose house. The meeting was called for the purpose of discussing the projected plan to place all firemen who attend fires on a schedule of pay. The companies are opposed to the plan as set before the council at a meeting held a short time ago and it is understood that a committee from East Brainerd will be over to the meeting on Monday night to oppose the matter.

After the discussion of the question last night by all the members present the men turned their minds to social matters and a real genuine "smoker" was had, and the meeting closed with a love feast.

Commissioner of Labor is Authorized by Law to Collect and Compile Reports

John P. Gardiner, representing the bureau of labor of the state, has been in the city for two or three days gathering statistics preparatory to the compilation of the forthcoming biennial report. This report when completed will be of inestimable value to all interested in organized labor and trade unions. This data is all systematically arranged and will be very interesting.

As an idea of what is intended by the law it might be stated that the Commissioner of Labor is authorized by law, Chapter 6, General Laws of 1893, Sec. 2, to collect, assort, arrange and present, in biennial reports to the legislature, on or before the first Monday in January, statistical details to all departments of labor in the state; to the subjects of cooperation, strike or other labor difficulties; to trade unions and other labor organizations and their effect upon labor and capital; and to such other matters relating to the commercial, industrial, social, educational, moral and sanitary conditions of the laboring classes as the bureau may be able to gather.

"Grimes' Cellar Door" Co., that will open at the opera house Monday night, has more pretty girls—funny comedians and great speciations, than any show that comes here this season. Oct. 17.

"GRIMES CELLAR DOOR"

Pantomime, farce, and acrobatic features in abundance are the elements of the production, the "Grimes' Cellar Door" which will be seen at the Brainerd opera house Monday night. To enumerate the numerous humorous scenes in the play would be to describe it from start to finish. There is plenty of fun going on all the time in the new "Grimes' Cellar Door," and the entertainment stands alone in its class. The company is headed by James B. Mackie (Grimes-m-Boy) for years Chas. Hoyt's leading comedian, and also includes the following well-known artists:

The famous Onri family, five in number, from the London Hippodrome, marvelous equilibrists, acrobats, pantomimists and jugglers in the European sensation, "An Interrupted Supper"; the clever singers and dancers, the Major Sisters from the London Alhambra; the sweet singer Harry Wright, also Lida Dexter, Alice Lewis, Josephine Lynn, Della Cushman, Frank Vane, Brothers Denton, Alice Martin and others. Seats now selling at Dunn's.

MISS BLOTCY, THE READER.

Miss Blotcky, the dramatic reader, is one of the star attractions of the season in the way of entertainment in this line. BARGAIN SALE

Anything at a Bargain means almost given away. A man might advertise a cut-price sale, what is that when you know he sold his goods too high in the first place. Another man might advertise a great reduction sale and still want to make a good profit on his goods, and another one also that would like to be in it, would try and get up an old scheme that has been worked to death for years in the larger cities, as the fake telegram and fire sales, another old one, railroad wreck, but the real genuine stuff in BIG BARGAINS is at MARK'S GREAT BARGAIN STORE, the Greatest Bargain Place in the city, and this is what you will find there as thousands have before you.
